

Actress Vivica A. Fox has a built-in coolness radar. Here's what's making it bleep right now

Will Smith's girlfriend in Independence Day, who starred this past summer in Juwanna Mann and can be seen in Little Secrets this fall, knows a good thing when she sees it (or hears it or wears it). Vivica lists what she loves—and that's no act.

1. While I'm riding to work, I listen to Brandy's Full Moon or to Ashanti.

2. Maybelline's Great Lash Mascara ($6.15) is dependable and goes on quickly.

3. The Rock really is the New Age millennium hero, not to mention the fact that he's gorgeous.

4. For the way look, you can't beat John Frieda's Frizz-Ease Secret Weapon styling cream ($5.99).

5. Dermalogica's Body Hydrating Cream ($39.50) is just right for sensitive skin.

6. I drove a Jaguar in Two Can Play at That Game and have loved the car ever since.

7. Katherine Tess makes elasticized bracelets, which you can customize with diamonds to spell a name. They're simple yet sexy!

8. Bumble and Bumble's Tonic ($13) is a terrific scalp conditioner, and it has tea-tree oil, which I love.

9. Iman's makeup is probably the best on the market for women of color. (I-Iman's Blush in #06; $20).

10. I love basketball, especially my favorite team, the L.A. Lakers.
