

Hilary's new bracelet gives her secret away!

HILARY DUFF

Is Hilary Duff wearing her heart on her sleeve? Or, more specifically, on her wrist? Although the 17-year-old says she's "just friends" with 25-year-old Good Charlotte singer Joel Madden, she's been wearing a bracelet with his first name! For his part, Joel has said he's only hung out with Hilary a few times and hasn't even kissed her, but he joked on The Howard Stern Show that he'll wait until she's 18. For the record, he's got 11 months to go.

Delta discovered that Mark had ditched her for Paris when a reporter contacted her family!

Paris' messy love match

Paris Hilton has a new love — but at the price of another woman's heart. "I'm head over heels in love," Paris told reporters. "I adore him, he's so hot. His name is Mark Philippoussis."

Mark, a 27-year-old Australian tennis player who's a heartthrob in his home country, has been romantically linked in the past to Anna Kournikova and to Paris' pal, actress Tara Reid. However, for the past nine months, the sports star, nicknamed Scud, had been dating Aussie pop star Delta Goodrem, 19. "That's completely over," Paris, 23, told reporters. "Mark says after a while, it became obvious Delta was too boring."

The breakup came as a shock to Delta, who was in London promoting a love song she had written about Mark and how he had helped her triumph over Hodgkin's disease. Delta met the tennis player when he sent her get-well flowers last year. "Delta is really upset," a source told The Daily Telegraph. "It's awful."

▲ "Paris and Mark are friends," her rep told In Touch.

Ben says he and his castmates love to talk about politics on the set.
